

(Editor's Note: The Brass Ring this week gives Senator Joseph C. Mahoney if Wyoming one free ride on the Washington Merry-Go-Round" by telling the fascinating story of his career.)

Aboard the President's Train — When Roosevelt went out of his way to traverse a good section of this husky State of Wyoming, while en route to Seattle, he did so partly to gratify the personal peevishness of his good friend Jim Farley against the senior Senator from Wyoming.

The Senator, Joseph Christopher O'Mahoney, owes a large slice of his recent political success to Jim Farley, and according to Jim's Tammany-bred ethics there is no greater sin among the political commandments than ingratitude.

Joe O'Mahoney was not grateful. Joe and Jim got to know each other back in 1932 when Farley, suitcase in hand, was trekking across the continent slapping backs, spilling reams of green ink, and lining up local leaders for Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

Joseph C. O'Mahoney was one of those. In fact, he was one of Farley's chief advisers for the area west of the Mississippi River. The two men became very close, and immediately after the election, Farley made O'Mahoney his first Assistant Postmaster General, the No. 2 job in the Post Office Department.

O'Mahoney ran the Department while Farley was away, did an excellent job in reorganizing it. No two men in the New Deal were better friends, had more confidences than Jim and Joe.

Then in the late fall of 1933, Senator Kendrick of Wyoming suddenly died, and the Governor appointed Joe O'Mahoney, Kendrick's former Secretary, Jim Farley, returning from Europe, said:

"I hate to lose Joe as my chief assistant, but I know he will be a great Senator for Wyoming and the nation."

Jim really meant that. But just a brief year later he was ruefully regretting the fact that he had elevated O'Mahoney to public life. For Joe became one of the most effective leaders of the fight against Roosevelt's reform of the Supreme Court.

Luck and Politics
Joe O'Mahoney was born, not in Wyoming, but in a Boston suburb, of poor Irish parents and with nothing in life save unflinching courage, a good brain, and plenty of luck.

Luck has played an extremely important part in the life of Joe O'Mahoney. If it hadn't been for a sick brother who needed the dryer climate of the West Joe might be completely unheard of still in Boston. As it was, he arrived with his brother in Denver just 30 years ago with $15 in his pocket.

He got a job with The Boulder, Colo. Daily Herald, and a few years later decided to migrate to another newspaper job in Texas. Again luck intervened. Joe actually had packed his suitcase and gone to the station, when suddenly he played a hunch—and went to Cheyenne, Wyoming, instead.

Here he got a job as city editor of The Cheyenne State Leader, owned by John B. Kendrick, then Governor of the State. O'Mahoney became his secretary when Kendrick was elected to the Senate, and later succeeded to the same suite of offices when Kendrick died.

Had O'Mahoney gone on to Texas, he would have edited the newspaper owned by Albert B. Fall, later Secretary of the Interior during the Teapot Dome scandals.

Good Record
Whether you are for the Administration or against it, there is no escaping the fact that O'Mahoney has been an able Senator. He has been in office less than four years, but already he has made a name for himself. His effectiveness comes in part from his love of a good fight, part from the fact that when he arrived, he knew Washington as few other Senators do.

Long years as secretary to Senator Kendrick had taught him all the tricks of the trade—and there are a lot of tricks.

One of these is to go slow on forensic exhibitions, save your breath for committee hearings. O'Mahoney is a member of seven different committees and he is a hard worker on all of them.

It was his effectiveness on the Judiciary Committee which helped materially in defeating Roosevelt's Supreme Court bill. Joe drafted the famous compromise plan which Administration leaders agreed to. Later a New York attorney offered him $100 for the slip of paper on which it was written.

O'Mahoney refused, framed it and took it back to Wyoming during the summer recess.

On Trial
Unquestionably O'Mahoney's stand on the Supreme Court hurt

Boys Missing

County authorities and state police were today requested to assist in locating two Paw Paw boys, Donald Urey, 13, and Gail Alexander, 14, who left their homes Friday morning, presumably to go to their schools and have not been heard from since. Donald is a student in the eighth grade and Gail is a freshman in the Paw Paw high school.

Last evening when the boys failed to return to their homes, their parents became alarmed and upon investigation learned that they had not been in school during the day. A description of the pair was broadcast over the state police radio system today and officials were requested to apprehend the boys and notify their parents.

HALT TRADING IN SEPT. CORN; AVERT SQUEEZE

Exchange Acts as Shorts Find It Impossible to Make Delivery

Chicago, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Directors of the Chicago Board of Trade invoke emergency powers today to suspend trading in September corn and end the market deadlock between traders in the commodity.

The board ordered settlement of all open contracts at a price of $1.10 1/2 per bushel. The action averted a threatened "squeeze" which developed when it became apparent there was not sufficient September corn available to permit traders to make deliveries in accordance with their contracts.

President Kenneth S. Templeton said the board had no alternative under the commodity exchange act which requires all contract markets to prevent manipulation.

A showdown on the threatened "squeeze" was due Monday. All deals were to have ended at that time and the "shorts" would have had three days thereafter in which to make delivery.

The market crisis was precipitated by the realization "shorts" were faced by a shortage of old domestic corn due to the drought of previous years. President Templeton said. The shortage, despite heavy importations of Argentine, South African and other foreign corn, he added, "permitted the 'long' interests to take advantage of the situation."

Newly-Weds Paid Fine For Speedy Honeymoon Trip

Louis E. Moore of Rochelle evaded the Illinois Saltiel marriage law yesterday by taking his bride to Clinton Iowa, where they obtained a marriage license and were married. Upon his return to Rochelle last night, Chief Van Bibber and Patrolman Seagren delayed the honeymoon trip for a brief time. Moore was arrested for speeding across the Galena avenue bridge and taken to the police station, where he paid a fine of $5 and costs, assessed by Justice J. O. Shaubli in the police traffic court. After paying the fine, Moore announced that he was hurrying home on his honeymoon after being married in Clinton.

HOT TIME IN THE OLD TOWN TONIGHT

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 25.—(AP)—"Where are you going?" Policeman Harry Stewart asked an 18 year old Negro carrying a burlap bag. "I was going out on a date," the Negro replied. Stewart looked in the sack.

It contained a stolen fire extinguisher.

Van Bibber Corners Culprit in Basement Of Home

Chester Lyle, 21, this city, terminated a relay race at 12:30 noon today at his home on Sixth street, when Chief Van Bibber and Patrolman Gilbert Glessner stopped the fleet footed youth in the basement. Lyle was taken to the police station where he was held, later to be turned over to Chief of Police Curt Bucher of Sterling, and returned to that city.

According to police, Lyle's relay race started late last night on the streets of Sterling, when the first lap was run in record time, and the Dixon youth evaded arrest by his unusual speed. Shortly afterward the second lap was sprinted through fields along the Lincoln Highway east of Sterling, when Lyle hurled wire fences and dashed away from State Highway Police Officer Harry Blackburn, who had taken up the chase. Local officers stated that Lyle was seated on the front porch at his home when they appeared at noon today, but in record time he disappeared, only to be cornered in the basement, later and taken into custody. Beside establishing a reputation as a sprinter, it was reported that Lyle had also succeeded in dodging several bullets which were aimed in his general direction.

Late last night Sterling police reported to Chief Van Bibber having apprehended Clifford Barth of this city, who with a companion, was discovered loitering about parked automobiles. Barth was detained pending the apprehension of his companion. The Sterling police reported that Barth at first denied knowing his companion, but later stated that Lyle had accompanied him. Barth's car was also being held pending the outcome of the investigation, it was reported.

PLOT TO BETRAY MADRID BARED BY SPANISH AGENTS

Chilean Embassy Is Involved; 200 Are Thrown In Jail

Madrid, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Government officials uprooting what was described as a vast counter-revolutionary movement to overthrow the Madrid-Valencia regime declared today its ramifications reached directly into the Chilean embassy.

They asserted the general staff headquarters for the civil and military conspiracy was located there.

A Chilean businessman, identified as Manuel Asencio Zuria, and two men said to be employees of the Argentine embassy, were among 200 persons already under arrest in this besieged metropolis.

Asencio Zuria, accused as the chief of one of four groups comprising the counter-revolutionists, was said to have had 1,500 men at his command, ready to strike at the rear of government troops defending Madrid upon a junction of the insurgent operation on the Madrid front.

The sudden drawing of the government net was reported to have brought capture of the conspiracy leaders among the 200 now jailed.

The counter-revolutionists were said to have plotted to force 5,000 men at the government forces while 2,500 persons took over the control of Madrid.

The government's secret inquiry, it was said, followed hints of the conspiracy dropped several months ago.

Seventeen army officers, accused as the principal leaders of the scheme, were under arrest last night when the government made its disclosure.

LOYALISTS ATTACK OVIEDO

Hendaye, Franco-Spanish Frontier, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Spanish government artillery hurled a terrific bombardment into insurgent Oviedo in northern Spain today.

The government troops apparently sought to force surrender by the Oviedo garrison, under siege for 14 months, before insurgent reinforcements can reach the city.

An insurgent column is moving swiftly toward Oviedo, and today was reported less than 25 miles to the south of the Asturian capital.

As government guns unleashed their thunder, Asturian troops fell back before an insurgent advance toward Lena, 20 miles south of Oviedo.

Insurgent advances said 400 shells fell into Oviedo in a two-hour bombardment adding further destruction to havoc wrought in the grueling siege that started almost with the opening of the civil war.

The advance on Lena, effected by the insurgent column moving down out of the Cantabrian mountains, was aimed at relieving the Oviedo siege and then moving north to the seacoast where a second insurgent column was pushing toward Gijon.

Report Gov't Losses

GARR BROTHERS AWAITING JURY ACTION OF CASE

Freed By Friends On Bonds Totalling $50,000

Shelbyville, Ky., Sept. 25.—(AP)—Free on bond, the three Garr brothers, accused of the slaying Monday night of Brig. Gen. Henry Denhardt, awaited today the action of a Shelby county grand jury scheduled to convene Oct. 4.

Their bonds, totaling $50,000, were executed quickly yesterday by six Oldham county friends of the Garrs, after County Judge Harry F. Walters bound them over to the grand jury. The brothers—Roy, Jack and Dr. E. S. Garr—are charged with murder in warrants sworn out Tuesday, but can be prosecuted only on indictments.

Dr. Garr and Roy returned to their homes near LaGrange, in Oldham county. Jack Garr, 37-year-old "baby" of the trio, said he was going to his home near Cincinnati.

Judge Walters' decision to grant the brothers bail was cheered wildly by the crowd that had jammed the court room all day and heard Roy Garr, 46-year-old farmer and bird dog trainer, assume full responsibility for the death of the 61-year-old general, who had been indicted and once tried for the slaying of his fiancée, Mrs. Verna Garr Taylor, 40, "baby sister" of the Garrs.

Wife Arrested For Disappearance Of Russ Army Chiefs

Paris, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Dark-haired Mme. Nadine Pleviskaia was arrested today in connection with the mysterious disappearance of her husband, General Nicholas Skobline, and a second former Russian army chief, General Eugene De Miller.

The surety also issued orders for the arrest of Gen. Skobline as the central figure in the baffling disappearance of De Miller, chief of the Russian emigres who served in the late Czar Nicholas' armies.

De Miller failed to return Wednesday night from an engagement he feared might be an ambush. His aide, Skobline, reported his disappearance and then himself vanished the following morning.

Lifer in Solitary Confinement For Alcatraz Prison Rebellion

San Francisco, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Burton E. Phillips, life term at Alcatraz federal prison, was in solitary confinement today while Warden James A. Johnston was recovering from injuries suffered when Phillips struck him down in a "one-man riot" in the prison's dining hall.

Prison officials did not reveal what further disciplinary measures would be taken against Phillips, sentenced to the San Francisco bay island penitentiary for kidnapping and bank robbery. The attack took place during Johnston's customary noon-day inspection of prisoners yesterday.

Only shortly before the warden had prepared a statement disclosing a hundred convicts had been at "strike" and had been confined to their cells since Monday.

Bleeding from head and face injuries, the warden was taken to the prison hospital but later was removed to his home adjoining the prison. Dr. George Hess said his injuries apparently were not serious.

Johnston himself telephoned a report of the assault to the department of justice in Washington and then resumed charge through Deputy Warden Edward A. Miller.

The 100 strikers, Johnston said, apparently are making "an effort to draw attention to themselves and stampede the department of justice into giving them more privileges and paroles."

The warden was attacked as he walked down a line of prisoners. Phillips suddenly stepped out of line behind him and felled him with a blow of his fist.

After the usual business a social hour followed during which the hostess served lovely refreshments.

Baseball

The high school baseball team opened the fall baseball season at Steward Friday. The problem this fall has been to fill the positions of the senior boys who graduated last year. This has meant a complete new battery.

Lloyd Bucher, a junior, a discovery of this fall, opened the season on the mound. Johnny Hatch, taken from his second base position, has been developed into a catcher. Wallace Heckman, a freshman, has taken McDivitt's place at first base while McDivitt has gone into the outfield to take Studebaker's place. Francis Thomas is playing at third base, taking Wasson's position, while Bill Ives has been moved to second base to take Hatch's vacated position.

With this line-up the team promises to be up to par, if not better than the team last year. Bucher found tough going in the first inning of the game, mainly from a lack of experience and control, walking four men and allowing two hits for a total of six runs. In the second inning Steward scored a run on two hits. During the remainder of the game Bucher allowed only two hits, coming in the fourth inning. During this time the home team picked up one run in the first and one in the fourth on a total of seven scattered hits. The final score was 7-2 in favor of Steward. Considering the inexperience of our battery and several new men, and the effectiveness of the team during the last five innings of the game there is every reason to believe that a good team will be developed.

G. R. V. C. Tourney

Through the untiring efforts of Supt. Neil Fox, Franklin Grove will have the 1937 G. R. V. C. basketball tournament on December 8, 9, 10 and 11, according to a vote of conference officials, who held their annual meeting Tuesday evening in Lee. The new gymnasium will be completed by or before the middle of November when Ashton will be the guest team at its opening. Which is very fine to have our neighbors on the east to be the first guests.

Pairings made at the meeting pit Ashton against Rollo, conference champions, in the first game of the tournament. Last year with a smooth-playing, high-scoring team of veterans, Rollo breezed through two opening games and took a 25 to 19 victory from Paw Paw for their first conference win. This year Rollo will have the same team with the exception of their center, captain Kenneth Jump. For the fourth and last year the Rollo team will be playing as a whole and they will be shooting for another championship.

Also in the top bracket of pairings is Lee Center and Franklin Grove, who will be worthy opponents. Compton and Paw Paw, Steward and Lee. Supt. E. G. Horn, coach of the Rollo team, was elected president of the conference at Tuesday's meeting and Supt. John A. Torrens of Ashton was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Wednesday evening items will give the dates and places for the local team, which at this time we are unable to obtain.

Charivari For Ernest Rhodes And His Bride

On Thursday evening, Sept. 23rd the attractive country home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rhodes was the scene of a merry charivari party when eighty friends and neighbors gathered to serenade their son Ernest and his bride (the former Mary Ellen Brierton), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Brierton of Palmyra township, the newly-weds having just arrived from a honeymoon trip to the western coast where they had spent three weeks. After having a merry time outside the merry-makers were invited into the home where they were most royally entertained by the hospitable Rhodes family with five hundred and buncos while the older folks visited. At 11 o'clock the hostess, assisted by her daughter Ethel Millhouse, Mildred Lair, sister of the bride; Norah Newcomer and Frances Tyne served refreshments of coffee, sandwiches, cake and fruit salad. The bridegroom's treat of ten gallons of ice cream was also consumed as well as a box of choice cigars for the male members of the party. After refreshments were served the newly-weds were ushered into a room where gifts were piled high on a table. Much merriment was caused by the reading of the articles in the nature of advice to the bride and bridegroom which were included with each gift. When all gifts were unwrapped there was a beautiful display of useful articles. At a late hour the guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes a long and happy life and thanked Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rhodes for a very happy evening spent in their pleasant hospitable home.

Important Principles in Cake Making

Years ago it was thought that women who could make light, fluffy delicious cakes possessed some unusual gift or talent. It is certain that one who can "turn out" a perfect cake is truly an artist—but the preparation of the perfect cake is not only an art, but a science that may be mastered by anyone willing to follow the general rules and the recipes given here.

Eight Important Principles in Cake Making

1. A perfect recipe—one which has been thoroughly tested to make certain that the proportions of the various ingredients are correct.

2. Standard measuring equipment—a standard measuring cup (an 8 fluid ounce cup marked off into quarters, halves, and thirds) and a set of measuring spoons (tablespoons, teaspoon, 1-2 teaspoon, and 1-4 teaspoon).

3. All measurements must be accurate and level.

4. Use only the finest of ingredients.

Sugar—Use a finely granulated sugar. A coarse sugar tends to produce a coarse textured cake.

Shortening—Select a shortening with a fine, sweet flavor, one that will give a fine sweet flavor to foods baked with it.

Choose a shortening which creams up easily.

Pick a shortening which will give volume and lightness to the finished cake.

Eggs—Should be of highest quality.

Flour—There are two types of wheat flour, both of which are used in the preparation of fine cakes.

Pastry flour or cake flour. Made from winter wheat, containing a low percentage of gluten.

Bread or all-purpose flour. Made from spring wheat, containing a higher percentage of gluten.

Baking powder—Use a good standard baking powder—it will help to make a cake of greater lightness and finer texture.

Liquids—Sweet milk, evaporated milk, sour milk, buttermilk, water and fruit juices may all be used depending upon the type of cake and the flavor desired.

5. Proper method of mixing such cakes—Sift flour once, measure, combine with other dry ingredients and sift three times.

Cream butter by stirring and mashing with a slotted wooden spoon.

Add sifted sugar, a small amount at a time, and cream the mixture until light, plastic and very smooth.

Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon colored and add to the creamed mixture. Beat mixture thoroughly.

Add a small amount (about 4 tablespoonsful) of the dry ingredients to the creamed mixture and blend well.

Add alternately (a small amount at a time) the remaining dry ingredients and the liquids to the creamed mixture and blend well.

Add flavoring—blend thoroughly. Beat egg white until still, but not dry—cut and fold into the cake batter.

6. Tests to determine when cake is done.

Color—Cake when completely baked should have finished rising and should have a delicate brown crust.

Shrinkage from sides of the pan. A cake when done will shrink slightly from the sides of the pan.

Reaction to touch—Touch the surface of the cake with the finger tips—no finger prints should remain if the cake is completely baked.

Toothpicks or cake tester—A toothpick or a wire cake tester, when inserted into the center of the cake should come out clean and dry.

Above young Roosevelt points out campus sights to his bride on the steps of the simple white brick house, below, which they selected to be their home.

7. Correct oven temperature—It is important to have the right oven temperature. Too high a temperature will cause holes or tunnels, cracks and humps on the top. Too low an oven will cause part of the leavening to escape before the cake is "set"—causing a coarse-textured cake.

8. Handling of the cake after removal from the oven—Invert cake and tin on cake-cooler for about 3 minutes. Loosen sides of cake from pan with spatula. Turn cake onto cake cooler. Turn right-side up. Allow cake to finish cooling.

Frost.

New-Fashioned Way To Fix Old-Fashioned Dessert

Everybody loves a dessert you can eat right-out-of-the-oven when it's hot and sugary and deliciously fresh. You can stir up this Old Fashioned Apple Roll in a jiffy if you want to give the family a surprise treat at the last minute.

Apple Roll and Variations
4 medium sized apples (or 2 cups berries or other fruit)
1 1/2 cups sugar
2 cups water
1 tbsp. butter
Sugar and cinnamon.

Method: 1. Select apples that will cook quickly.

2. Peel, core and chop fine.

3. Put sugar and water in a pan two inches deep. Cook about five minutes over slow fire.

4. While syrup is cooking, make up a rich biscuit dough.

5. Roll about 1/4 inch thick.

6. Spread with the finely chopped apples (or other fruit) and roll into a long roll.

7. Cut into pieces about 1 1/2 inches wide.

8. Place cut side down in the pan of hot syrup.

9. Dot with butter and sprinkle with cinnamon and sugar.

10. Place pan in oven and bake until apples are cooked and the crust is a golden brown.

11. Lift out on platter and pour syrup around them.

12. May be topped with whipped cream.

Time—Bake 25 minutes.

Temperature—450 degrees F., hot oven.

Size of Pan—6 x 12 inches.

Amount—12 servings.

Rich Biscuit Dough

2 cups all-purpose flour

1 tsp. salt

4 tsp. baking powder

6 tbsp. shortening

3/4 cup milk

Method: 1. Sift flour once before measuring.

4. Add the milk to make a soft dough.

Pie Crust

1 cup all-purpose flour

1/2 tsp. salt

1-3 cup shortening

Ice water (2 to 3 tbsp.)

3. Cut in shortening with 2 knives or a pastry blender—leaving some of the shortening in lumps the size of giant peas.

4. Add ice water. (Sprinkle the water lightly— a little at a time—over the flour and shortening. At first, blend it in lightly with a fork; then gather dough together lightly with the fingertips. As soon as you can make dough stay together, you have plenty of water in it.)

LEGION TO GIVE RIFLE LESSONS TO DIXON BOYS

Program to Replace Baseball During Winter Months

Dixon Post. No. 12, American Legion is sponsoring a boy's rifle instruction course to be conducted during the winter months, and in this project has received the support of officers of Co. A, 129th Infantry of this city.

Boys of 18 years of age and under are eligible to enroll in the course of handling of fire arms and marksmanship. Captain Gus Wimpleberg will meet with boys desiring to enroll in the course at the Armory hall next Friday evening at 7:30. Captain Wimpleberg returned recently from Camp Perry, Ohio, where he served for a period of three weeks as an instructor in marksmanship. He will be assisted in the course by Sergeants Moss-holder, Peterson and Brown and Corporals Meppin and Gasser, all of whom attended the small arms school of instruction at Camp Logan during the summer and are competent instructors.

Boys enrolling for the course will be given instruction first in the mechanism and the proper handling of fire arms in general. Rifles will be furnished and a small cost will be made to cover the amount of ammunition used. Boys are requested not to bring guns or ammunition to the meeting.

The Junior Legion baseball schedule has closed after a very successful season, and the local Legion post is offering the course in handling of fire arms and marksmanship to the boys of Dixon and vicinity to provide clean, competitive sport under expert supervision at a nominal cost during the winter months.

Grade Schools In Chicago Are Open As Polio Subsidies

Chicago, Sept. 25.—(AP)—The board of health lifted today a ban on classes for elementary school children, excepting kindergarten and first grade pupils, provided "no unusual rise in the number of infantile paralysis cases" occurs within the next 24 hours.

Schools originally were to have opened Sept. 7. Bpt an outbreak of the disease prompted officials to postpone resumption of classes indefinitely.

High schools reopened a week ago Thursday after conditions were found to be not serious among children of high school age.

The decision to lift the ban on children of upper grades came at a meeting of public and parochial school officials and Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, president of the board of health. At a meeting Thursday, the same group decided the situation still unsafe.

Engineer Charged With Embezzlement And Bigamy Today

Chicago, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Wallace A. Gill, structural engineer, was charged with embezzlement and bigamy today after questioning by detectives upon his return from St. Louis where he was arrested Wednesday.

Sgt. Philip Breitzke said Gill denied he had embezzled $102 from the engineering firm by whom he was employed. The money, he told Breitzke, had been loaned him by the company.

Breitzke said Gill also denied any bigamous intent when he married Mary Helen Haley Sept. 9 in Marlin, Tex., as he believed his second wife, Irma May Schaffer Gill, had obtained a divorce.

Gill was divorced from Mrs. Sally Gill, May 13, 1933, in Saginaw, Mich.

WE CAN QUIT FUELING ORIENT'S WAR ENGINE

The Japanese bombing of 20 Chinese cities represents in its purest form a new and frightening principle of warfare.

These cities were not primarily strongholds. The raids failed to damage any forts, airports or factories. Most of the victims were humble folk, huddled in pitiful refugee camps. By no stretch of the imagination could they be considered obstacles to Japan's conquest.

The attack could give Japan no conceivable military advantage; its sole aim was to make war so horrible for non-combatants that the nation's willingness to resist invasion would be broken.

And this casual acceptance by the Japanese general staff of the idea that wars can be won by applied frightfulness leads us to a warning sounded by Pearl Buck in the current issue of Asia Magazine.

Mrs. Buck remarks that the orient lacks all of those restraining notions about the value of human life which, through the centuries, we have built up in the west. Life is not sacred, in the Far East; people are crowded together too closely, getting a living is too much a grim struggle, death is too familiar a specter. The oriental simply does not look at death as we look at it.

To this oriental, continues Mrs. Buck, the western world has given the most terrible of weapons. It has armed, and armed to the teeth, a people who have no moral or sentimental restraint whatever against using its weapons to the very limit of their power. And, says Mrs. Buck:

"To have the means of death in one's hands with no fear of death in one's heart is the ultimate of terror, not only for those who are actually engaged in such warfare, but for everybody alive. This combination of orient and occident, spreading world-wide, would be the end not only to all civilization, but to all physical human life."

It may make, then, very little difference—as far as our western world is concerned—whether Japan or China wins the present war. In either case, the victor will, as Mrs. Buck says, be "flushed with a fresh and horrible confidence in the ruthlessness of his heart and the gun in his hand."

For the world has at last brought itself to this pass; it has put the means of unlimited destruction in the hands of people who can have no qualms whatever about using them.

It is a dark and frightening picture. It may be that it is already too late for us to "do anything about it"; but we might, at the very least, give some thought to the advisability of immediately stopping the sale of munitions to either side in the conflict.

SIZING UP PWA

Abolition of the Public Works Administration would seem to make some sort of landmark in the slow progress of our long fight against the depression. The PWA was in some ways the most spectacular of the emergency spending agencies; its demise indicates that the emergency is considered by the administration to be pretty well past.

It is generally agreed that PWA has been something of a disappointment—possibly because we expected too much of it in the first place. But in the main it has been a useful agency. Since 1933 it has allotted to non-federal projects upwards of $2,700,000,000, and has created some 661,000,000 man-hours of direct employment and two and one-half times that much indirect employment.

Now that it is out of the picture, we may be able to get a clearer picture of what it did for us—and figure out how we are going to pay for it.

ALIEN TEAPOT TEMPEST

A Washington correspondent recently remarked that Congress is not likely to get very excited over the recent exposure of Nazi organizational activities in the United States. Twice in the last seven years Congress has investigated propaganda activities of foreign groups, and neither time did its own findings stir it to enact any sort of remedial legislation. The congressmen just don't seem to think that these activities really menace the country much.

In that stand Congress is probably quite right. The ordinary citizen unquestionably hates to read of active groups which take their orders and draw their inspiration from Rome, Moscow or Berlin; he is apt to forget that such groups cut very little figure in our national life.

After all, there are 130,000,000 people in the United States. If ten or twenty thousand of them go haywire on Hitler, Stalin or Mussolini, it doesn't really make very much difference.

INDUSTRY'S REAL MARKET

The American Iron and Steel Institute recently made a study of steel plants in Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia, and it reported the other day, as a result, that the average steel worker is now an automobile owner. Of the 157,000 steel workers covered by the study, 117,000 owned cars; if this ratio holds good throughout the industry, 400,000 American steel workers are car owners.

One's first reaction is that this is pretty nice for the steel workers, who are not—either by American tradition or by European practice—ordinarily supposed to be prosperous enough to drive their own cars. But the second reaction is that it is also pretty nice for the automobile companies, too.

We sometimes forget that our vast productive machinery is based on a prosperous working class. If American working men could not buy things which workers in other lands cannot afford to buy, some of our greatest industries would find their markets disastrously curtailed.

Brain Twizzlers

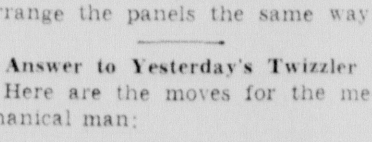

By PROF. J. D. FLINT

Above is an illustration of a crazy-quilt which, unfortunately, was not made in the good, old-fashioned way but instead had removable panels for the various designs.

One day a small boy changed the pattern all around, unwittingly arranging it in an unusual way. He removed all of the 16 panels and started a new pattern with a supply of each of the four designs to work with. He so arranged them that no two panels of the same design were in line with one another horizontally, vertically or diagonally and he had the fewest number of blank panels possible. Can you arrange the panels the same way?

DODGERS OUT TO END GIANT TITLE HOPES

All-Time Feud Was Started Three Years Ago

BY SID FEDER

Associated Press Sports Writer
Bill Terry has his fingers crossed: "Boiling Bolly" Grimes has his tongue in his cheek, and Brooklyn's drooping (but still Daffy) Dodgers are ready to give their all to make history repeat for dear old Gowan-us.

The Giants, sporting a 3½ game edge and seemingly headed for the National league pennant, tangle with the Dodgers in a series opening today. And the Brooklyn, woefully struggling with a nine-game losing streak, would like nothing better than to beat their best-loved enemies right out of the picture.

When Bill Terry asked "are the Dodgers still in this league?" three years ago, he started an all-time feud—and the Brooklyn beauties will never stop their hating.

There are a lot of new characters in the Brooklyn comedy cast since the Dodgers replied to Terry's 1934 jibe by clubbing the Giants out of the pennant, but the spirit's still the same.

No Change As Yet

There was no change in the National league picture on yesterday's program. The Giants, traveling in from the west, had a day off. The Cubs, 3½ games behind in second place, had a date with the Cardinals, but rain in St. Louis washed it out after an inning of play.

In the American league, meantime, the Yankees began the polishing process on their big guns and defenses for the start of the World Series less than two weeks off by topping the Red Sox, 4-1, in their first start as 1937 pennant winners. But they had their hands full doing it. Archie McKahn stopped them with one run through the first eight innings. In the ninth, however, Archie got himself in hot water and lost the ball game, when, with the bases loaded, and two out, Red Rolfe smashed a booming triple into right field that wrecked the game.

The win was the Yanks' 97th of the year and gave them a lead of 13 games over the second-place Detroit Tigers, who met up with Denny Galehouse on one of his few days of the season and were whipped, 2-1, by the Cleveland Indians. Denny downed the Detroiters with five hits.

In the only other game on the program, the Cincinnati Reds made four errors in one inning and were trampled by the Pirates, 8-2. Every other club in the big show had a holiday.

MARQUETTE AND RYAN TO RENEW ANCIENT FEUD

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 25—A 35-year-old feud that has lapsed since 1931 will be renewed here, Saturday afternoon, when Coach Paddy Driscoll will unveil his Marquette Golden Avalanche football team in the opening game of the season with Ripon college. The kickoff is scheduled for 2 o'clock.

Driscoll, who this season assumed Hilltop coaching reins that Frank J. Murray had held for 15 years, but yielded to accept a job at the University of Virginia, faces a tough row. Marquette teams of 1935 and 1936 were exceptionally successful, but the great backs of those two campaigns are gone and there is only green material to replace them. A veteran line is available, however.

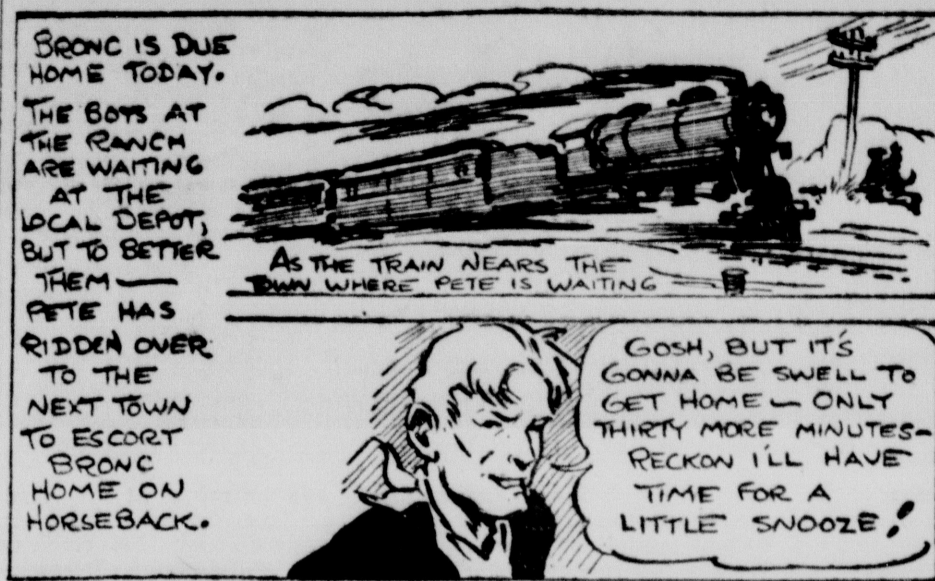

The new Golden Avalanche coach believes his youngsters can swing a victory over Ripon Saturday, but he naturally has warned them against overconfidence. He has told them, for instance, that it was Ripon which in 1922 played Marquette's great undefeated aggregation of that year to a scoreless tie.

In all, the Hilltoppers and the Redmen have met on the gridiron 13 times since 1902. Marquette has won eight games, lost two, and tied three. Following is the record:

1902—Marquette 11; Ripon 0.
1903—Marquette 30; Ripon 0.
1905—Marquette 0; Ripon 17.
1907—Marquette 23; Ripon 0.
1914—Marquette 0; Ripon 13.
1915—Marquette 7; Ripon 7.
1918—Marquette 13; Ripon 6.
1920—Marquette 23; Ripon 9.
1921—Marquette 0; Ripon 0.
1923—Marquette 0; Ripon 0.
1923—Marquette 31; Ripon 0.
1930—Marquette 53; Ripon 0.
1931—Marquette 40; Ripon 0.

Mrs. Maude Rutherford, a sun-tanned, wind-burned blonde from Port Washington, N. Y., decided to drive Miss Palm Beach Days in the first heat of the President's Cup race this afternoon.

Count Theo Rossi of Italy offered the first foreign challenge in the 10-year history of this regatta. Not many months ago he was leading Italian cavalry charges in Ethiopia.

Dozen Trotters Likely Starters, Today's Futurity

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 25—(AP)—A dozen trotters were regarded as likely starters today in the Kentucky futurity for two-year-olds, feature of the second-day program of the 65th annual Kentucky trotting horse breeders' association.

Highlighting the inaugural program was the performance of Dean Hanover of the Hanover Shoe Farms, Hanover, Pa., which established a world's mile record for three-year-old trotters of 1:58½ in an exhibition. The famous colt was driven by Alma Sheppard, 11, daughter of Lawrence B. Sheppard of the Hanover farm organization.

In congested areas, traffic experts say, the ideal speed to facilitate traffic is 23 miles an hour.

"No Disgrace to Lose to Fine Team Like Rockford," Says Lindell After Game

Burly Rabs Charge To 26-0 Victory Like Champs

Two fine teams met in Fifteenth Avenue stadium at Rockford Friday night, but one was a fine North Central conference team and the other was potentially a championship Big Seven loop eleven, and thereby hangs a tale.

Experts agreed at the conclusion of the contest that Dixon can and will hold its own in its own class, but that in meeting the giant Rockford Rabs, they had stepped into competition a bit too severe for the material the Purple and White has in uniform this fall.

The burly Rabs charged through Dixon to a 26-0 victory, one of the worst beatings a Purple and White football club has suffered under the tutelage of Coach C. B. Lindell in all the nine years he has coached here, but in doing so Rockford was given as thorough a test as any team ever had in its opening game. The locals never gave up and in the last quarter outplayed their heavy foes to a standstill. In the contest Rockford made twelve first downs to Dixon's nine and in the air each team completed only a couple of passes.

A bad break right at the opening kickoff gave Rockford a chance to strike a sledge—hammer blow at Dixon's goal for its first touchdown. Ellis fumbled the kickoff and Stasica recovered for Rockford on Dixon's 22-yard line. A pass was then good to the five yard line and MacEntee slashed through tackle across the goal stripe. Scarcely two minutes later before Dixon had recovered from this shock, Stasica, on a fake crossback took the ball from MacEntee and swept around Dixon's left end 27 yards. Three more sweeping flank attacks put the oval on the Dixon 10-yard line and Stasica snaked his way over on a cut-back through tackle.

Rockford's alert forwards and backs smothered Dixon's passing game. In the second period Bergquist intercepted a pass and ran nearly 50 yards before he was downed. This paved the way for another crushing blow at Dixon's goal. Bergquist ripping through the Purple and White line from the three yard line.

Dixon Threatens Twice

Dixon's only two threats to register a touchdown came in the latter half of the game, once in the third quarter and once in the waning moments of the game. After Bergquist had scored Rockford's fourth and last touchdown, Dixon had possession of the ball in mid-field and Red Ellis got away for an 18-yard sprint to Rockford's 31-yard line. Jensen ripped off six yards and the local machine moved up on a series of powerful line plays to Rockford's 14 yard marker before the attack bogged down.

In the last quarter Dixon marched 50 yards with Ankeny providing the main punch, and advanced to the Rockford 6-yard line before Rockford again stiffened to meet the crisis and punt Dixon back to mid-field.

RESERVES DO WELL

Assistant Coach Marvin Winger's Dixon reserves coped with the Rockford Rabbits much better than their luckless heavyweight foes, and managed to limit the hosts to a 7 to 0 decision.

Rockford made eight first downs to Dixon's four. The locals completed one out of five passes and Rockford's aerials, working more accurately, were good for three tries out of seven. The Rabbits ran Dixon's ends to death, however, and their tricky shift puzzled the locals long enough for Swenson to race around Dixon's end from the five yard line and Rockford's only touchdown.

Dixon failed to make a first down until the third quarter of the game. McGrail cracking the line for the honor. In the fourth quarter the locals marched 50 yards before losing the ball deep in Rockford territory. The Rabbits did not seriously threaten Dixon's goal in the last half except once in the third quarter when Callahan's punt was blocked on Dixon's 25-yard line and rolled back to the 14-yard marker. Two or three Rabbits passes were bungled, however, and Rockford lost the ball.

St. Louis U. Wins Over Millikin

St. Louis, Sept. 25—(AP)—The Billikens of St. Louis university chalked up a 37 to 0 football victory in their opener against the James Millikin team from Decatur, Ill., last night.

Play of quarterback Bob Shea and Charles Harris, reserve fullback, stood out in the easy victory. The Bills' touchdowns were made by Carl Totsch, shortly after the opening, Denny Cochrane and Harris in the second quarter, and Cochrane in the final period. Only the final try for extra point succeeded.

Floating 'Embassy' American Refuge at Nanking

The river gunboat Luzon, shown above anchored in the Yangtze river, was the refuge of American Ambassador Nelson T. Johnson, his staff, and some 20 other Americans as Japanese naval and air forces prepared to bomb Nanking, ancient capital of China. The Luzon took aboard the embassy staff and other Americans and was to steam up-river out of bombing range. Built especially for service along the Chinese rivers, the Luzon has been a fixture along the Chinese coast for years.

to severe insurgent communication lines to the southern seaports.

Asturian troops today evacuated Cangas de Onis, a bulwark of their "iron ring" defense of Gijon, an insurgent commune reported.

Through the slush of freshly-fallen snow, the tired defenders of the Spanish government's last northern western coast stronghold fell back in the face of a threatened assault on the inland Biscayan village, some 30 miles east and slightly south of Gijon.

The retreat brought a column of Generalissimo Francisco Franco's Navarrese soldiers to the very ramparts of the Asturian fortifications in this sector—if they had not actually penetrated them.

Two counter-attacks, both repulsed by the Navarrese, preceded the retreat. Another insurgent spearhead was thrust into the outskirts of Covadonga, about five miles northwest of Cangas de Onis, another Asturian concentration point on the semi-circular ring through the mountains east and south of Gijon.

The coastal terminus of the defense ring, Rivasella, a fishing port, was bombed heavily from the air and shelled by gunboats from the mouth of the Sella river.

Franco's campaign in the eastern sector had given him complete control of a road leading from heights of the Riopu mountains to Cangas de Onis.

The Navarrese brigade advanced along the road, deploying forces to the right and left, cleaning out nests of militiamen as they drove forward to half-encircle Cangas de Onis.

The driver of the truck, Gale Weatherford of Mt. Vernon, told Sheriff Sam L. Malone that the automobile, going east, turned out into his path to pass another car ahead of it. Weatherford was not injured.

Charges of carrying concealed weapons were lodged against Joseph Albanese, 33, and Dominick Pasqual, 37, who police said refused Harvey Williams, a Progressive Mine Union engineer, entrance to the mine.

The situation at Mine B drew Governor Horner's attention last week when he conferred with rival union leaders. The mine which formerly was worked by the P. M. A. recently signed a contract with the U. M. W. A.

Warns Of Dangers In Present State Banking Laws Now

DuQuoin, Ill., Sept. 25.—(AP)—J. F. Schmidt, vice-president of the Waterloo First State bank, left a warning today before 500 bankers that "continuation of the present state banking laws will destroy the state banking system."

Speakers before a series of meetings in Effingham, Collinsville and DuQuoin have urged repeal of the double liability law applying to stockholders in state banks. An amendment which would repeal this law will go before voters in November. Schmidt pointed out that national banks do not operate under such a provision.

Martin A. Graettinger, executive vice-president of the Illinois Bankers' Association, said meetings would continue throughout the state.

FDR AND PARTY TOUR WESTERN SCENIC PARKS

President Greeted By Crowds in Montana

Gardiner, Mont., Sept. 25.—(AP)—President and Mrs. Roosevelt left their special train today and motored through Gardiner to start an all-day tour of Yellowstone National park.

The President was greeted by a crowd of several hundred at the Gardiner depot. He then headed for the Mammoth Hot Springs hotel about six miles away in the park, from which he planned to start the tour.

Acting Governor Hugh R. Adair and other state officials of Montana boarded the President's train at Livingston, Mont., and rode to Gardiner, where Senator James E. Murray and Rep. James F. O'Connor also joined the party for the ride through Gardiner's decorated streets. Murray and O'Connor conferred briefly with Mr. Roosevelt before he left on the tour.

After meeting Mr. and Mrs. John Boettiger of Seattle, son-in-law and daughter, and the latter's children, Eleanor and Curtis Hall, the President and Mrs. Roosevelt planned to view the many natural formations at Mammoth.

Their motor route then carried them to Norris Basin to Canyon and on to Fishing Bridge for lunch.

They were to return to Canyon, drive over Dunraven Pass to view the buffalo herd, and visit Tower Falls before returning to Mammoth around 4:15 P. M.

Tonight Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt will be the guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Nichols. He is president of the Yellowstone Park company.

BOY MAY ESCAPE PROSECUTION IN SCHOOL SHOOTING

Toledo, O., Sept. 25.—(AP)—Friends of dark-haired Robert Snyder believed today the 12-year-old boy may escape prosecution despite firing five shots and seriously wounding his tall, elderly principal, Miss June Mapes.

Both the 59-year-old woman and the boy were recovering from wounds which police believed were inflicted over the boy's desire to demonstrate to a girl schoolmate "how tough he could be."

Lieut. Ralph Murphy said police had dropped the investigation and that it now rested with juvenile authorities. They will prosecute only if the principal urges it, he said.

The sturdily-built boy's friends pointed out that Miss Mapes had made every effort to keep news of the shooting suppressed.

Mrs. Earl R. Reynolds of Chicago, chairman on organization, is to address the presidents of 58 diocesan councils on "our common problem in the field of organization."

During the meetings brief talks also will be given by Mrs. Thomas P. Ryan of Minneapolis and Mrs. H. E. Sanford of Du Quoin, Ill.

SPEAKER LEWIS NAMES MEMBERS 12 COMMISSIONS

Plums Go To Backers Of Governor Horner in Legislature

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 25.—(AP)—Speaker Louie E. Lewis appointed 37 Democratic and 22 Republican members of the house today to 12 commissions and committees created by the sixtieth General Assembly.

Senate appointments to the bodies, for which $286,000, exclusive of expenses, was appropriated, were announced several weeks ago by Lieutenant Governor John Stille.

Only three house members were named to serve on more than one committee. Rep. Benjamin S. Adamowski, Chicago, Democratic floor leader; James P. Boyle, Chicago Democrat and chairman of the appropriations committee; and Reed Cutler, veteran Lewistown Republican, were named to two.

Nearly all of the committees will report to the next session of the legislature.

Plums to Hornerites
Most of the real plums—appointment to the New York World's Fair and San Francisco Golden Gate Exposition commissions—went to men who backed Governor Horner in his legislative battles.

Both commissions carry $100,000 appropriations for the installation and maintenance of Illinois exhibits, plus the actual expenses the members incur.

Named to the World's Fair commission were George A. Fitzgerald, Chicago; Henry Knapp, Ladd; and Howard J. Gorman, Peoria, Democrats; and I. H. Streeter, Alton; and Solomon P. Roderick, Chicago, Republicans.

Golden Gate commission—Adamowski, Boyle, and Paul Powell, Vienna, Democrats; and Cutler and Elmer J. Schnackenberg, minority leader, Republicans.

Adamowski, Roderick and Schnackenberg opposed the governor in the drivers' license squabbles, although the majority leader supported the administration on several other measures.

To Prepare Program

Appointed to the important legislative council to prepare a program for the next regular session were Hubbard, Adamowski, Weber, Edward C. Hunter, Perry, Gibbs, and Pettit, Batavia, Democrats; and Cross, Sallie, and Warfield, Republicans.

Illinois budgetary commission to study state expenditures—Laguer, Democrat, and Cutler.

Municipal code commission to revise statutes relating to cities—Parker, McCabe, and Holten, Democrats; and Rennie and Green, Republicans.

Commission on intergovernmental co-operation—Wilson, Manning, and McGaughey, Democrats; and Slater and Mrs. Bernice T. Van der Vries, Republicans.

Interstate flood relief and prevention—Witt, Democrat, and Palmer, Republican.

Committee to investigate handling of emergency relief and old age assistance funds—Vicars and Noonan, Democrats; and Johnson, Republican.

Commission to consider uniform traffic laws—Boyle, F. W. Lewis, Bauer, and Thomas A. Brennan, Democrats; and David Hunter, Jr., Republican.

Gettysburg memorial commission—Kaindl, Alpher, Lenane, Matt Franz, Schaefer O'Neill and Hannigan, Democrats; and Thon, Foster, Woodward and Scarborough, Republicans.

Illinois Swedish tercentenary commission—Teel, Bolger, McHenry, and Frank Ryan, Democrats; and Sandquist and Benson, Republicans.

Committee to extend official respects to Coach Robert C. Zupke of the University of Illinois—Petlak, Sturdyvin, and Garman, Democrats; and Granata and Peters, Republicans.

Circulation Of Reading Material Shows Small Gain

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 25.—(AP)—The circulation of reading material in Illinois' public libraries last year averaged 3.6 volumes per capita for the state, a fractional gain over 1935, the extension division of the state library said today in its annual report.

The report said 1,570,686 persons, 27.4 per cent of the state's population, held library cards. The total circulation was listed as 26,021,554, nearly 1,000,000 less than in the previous year.

Exclusive of Chicago's reference libraries, the number of volumes in the 281 tax-supported and 10 endowed libraries last year was placed at 7,078,695, a gain of 1,143,533 over 1935.

Excluding Chicago reference libraries, the total income was listed at $3,939,776, against expenses of $3,445,355.

FIVE-DAY WEEK LAW NEXT GOAL OF STATE LABOR

Vote On Proposal To Come Today At Ill. Labor Convention

LaSalle, Ill., Sept. 25.—(AP)—The five-day week in Illinois industry became the next major legislative goal of the state Federation of Labor today.

Only an approving vote in the closing session of the federation's 55th annual convention was needed to put this subject at the head of its future legislative program, taking the place vacated when the Illinois General Assembly enacted—after a 27-year fight by organized labor—the women's eight-hour day law.

The resolution awaiting expected approval averts the "problem of unemployment will never be settled unless a limit is set on labor time."

No Hour Proposed
It does not include a six-hour day proposal.

President Reuben G. Soderstrom called the five-day week "inevitable" and predicted it would be on the statute books within three years.

He said the federation, concentrating on the eight-hour law for women, made no special effort to push the shorter week proposal in the assembly this year because of uncertainty over the course of federal wages and hours legislation.

Other labor legislative recommendations made by the convention during its week-long session included taxation of labor-saving devices, a state labor relations law designed to safeguard unionists' jobs and strengthen collective bargaining, and increased benefits under the workmen's compensation laws.

Educational Program
Also awaiting action today was a resolution "condemning the action and attitude" of the Illinois Municipal League in seeking to invalidate a new law fixing minimum salaries for firemen and policemen in Illinois cities of more than 10,000 population.

Late yesterday the delegates approved a four-point educational program, asking Governor Horner to call a special session of the assembly to consider it. The proposals were for a state school board, an increase from $13,500,000 to $30,000,000 in state distributive fund aid to the public schools; minimum pay of $800 for elementary and $1,200 for high school teachers; and free, uniform text books to be financed partially by the state.

After State's Attorney
A resolution pledging the federation to an attempt to "oust from office" State's Attorney Louis R. Zerweck of St. Clair county was adopted last night at the request of delegates from the East St. Louis central trades and labor union.

Zerweck said the action "was unfair as I was not given a hearing." The resolution said the state's attorney "gave little or no help" in prosecution of cases involving alleged illegal collection methods in East St. Louis.

"The convention was not in possession of facts," Zerweck said. "I received no hearing from any committee of the federation and knew nothing of the action."

TAXES DAMPER ON BUSINESS SAYS CHAMBER

Washington, Sept. 25.—(AP)—The United States Chamber of Commerce said today federal, state and local taxes take so much of the national income that they "discourage business, threaten the security of wages and savings and retard employment."

The chamber, regarded as the spokesman for a large segment of business, asserted in a "statement of policies" that the federal budget should be balanced. It added:

"Unless expenditures are curtailed, any revenue program designed to obtain an early balance of the budget will fail of its purpose."

The chamber demanded "restoration of a satisfactory international monetary standard and strict maintenance of the integrity of the currencies of the world."

For Gold Standard
"The gold standard," its statement said, "is the only international monetary standard that has commanded general acceptance."

The chamber expressed opposition to cancellation of war debts. It said modified payment agreements should be effected only on condition that debtor nations grant Americans "fair competitive terms" in foreign trade and agree to reduce expenditures for armaments.

Striking at "government competition," the organization said "the invasion of government into fields of business properly occupied by private enterprise constitutes one of the gravest present threats against the economic freedom of our citizens."

WEAT AIR LIFTS VAPOR POORLY

WEATHER SIGNS
STEAM RISING BRISKLY MEANS THAT FAIR WEATHER IS NEAR DAY AIR LIFTS VAPOR WELL

FORECASTING BY STEAM
Weather wise folks have many signs and tokens to tell what sort of day tomorrow will be. Some of these signs are based on scientific facts, and are reliable. None of them is more reliable than the appearance and actions of plumes of white steam.

Watch the white steam escaping from a factory exhaust, or from an engine exhaust. Steam mixed with smoke will not be for this test, it must be pure clean white steam.

If the steam rises briskly, the weather will soon clear, and bright blue skies will come. If, however, the steam sinks, with little urge to rise, a storm is near, and the weather will be sure to get worse.

The scientific reason behind this action of steam is interesting. Steam is normally much lighter than air, and even after most of it has condensed into the water drops that make the white vapor we see issuing from the stack, enough water in gaseous form remains to make the whole cloud lighter than the surrounding air. Being lighter than air, it tends to rise. Its speed of rising depends largely on the humidity of the surrounding air, that is, on what sort of moisture the surrounding air contains. All air normally contains some water vapor, in the shape of invisible gas. When a storm is approaching, the quantity of this water vapor in the air greatly increases, or as we say, the humidity, or moisture of the air rises. Now moist air naturally cannot carry more steam with ease, for steam is moisture and such air is already carrying a heavy load of it, so it is sluggish in taking up the steam escaping from the stack. Thus when the steam seems to lie on the roof refusing to rise, we know that cloudy and stormy weather is near.

On the other hand, blue sky days are times of dry air. Then the air contains only a little water vapor, it is eager to get more, and so it avidly lifts the steam from the stack. When we see the plume of white rising we know that because the humidity is dropping, and the air is becoming drier, fair weather is no far off.

It frequently happens that these signs can be observed before there are other changes in the weather. It is a little uncanny to watch steam rising rapidly in the midst of a hard rain, but it often happens.

ALTHOUGH we have a fairly accurate estimate of how much gold has been mined in modern times, we have no way of knowing how much of that gold has gone back to Mother Earth. Buried treasure, ship wrecks, lost coins and the simple wearing away process have combined together keeping an ever steady stream of gold going out of circulation.

 SERGEANT DOLAN—officer assigned to solve the murder of Amy Kerr.

Yesterday, Dolan finds a note in Kerrigan's writing, asking Amy to meet him up on the roof at the bridge game the night of the murder. Cilly remembers now that Jim and Amy appeared to have known each other before.

CHAPTER IX
 THE apartment bell rang. "That's Martin," Sergeant Dolan said to Cilly. "One of my men. I've had him checking up on the tenants."

Cilly opened the door for him. "Come in, Martin," Dolan called. "What did you find out?"

Martin shook his head negatively. "The window from the fire escape was latched. He couldn't have opened it from the outside without breaking a pane of glass. Besides, from what I hear, before the young woman fell, there was a scream—loud enough to awaken the neighborhood. It awakened Mrs. Wheeler. If any man passed down the fire escape, she would have known it."

All 100-Lb. Bags Of Potatoes Must Weigh 100 Lbs. Henceforth
 Chicago, Sept. 25—(AP)—City Sealer James O'Keefe has posted notice that after October 15 all 100-pound bags of potatoes sent into the Chicago market must weigh 100 pounds.

He informed Chicago brokers, jobbers and out-of-town shippers his staff would not allow a four per cent shortage.

"Most fields do not weigh the potatoes but simply fill up a 100-pound bag," he said. "We found more bags underweight than overweight. The four per cent shortage allowance is a survival from the early days when potatoes were shipped loose."

BATTLESHIPS NAMED AFTER STATES ONLY

Illinoisans Want Next Ship Named the "Illinois"

Washington, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Sea-loving Illinoisans in Washington wondered today how long it would be before a new battleship is named for their state.

There is an Illinois afloat, but it is nearly 40 years old, its guns stripped, charts removed and decks covered by a plain wooden housing. It's a training ship for the New York naval militia, loaned to the state in 1921 after a proud career on the high seas, and now tied at a New York City pier.

The seagoing days of the old Illinois, one of the big attractions in the navy's 1908 world cruise, were recalled by a routine navy department announcement that it has been moved from the 135th street pier in New York to 96th street. Many had thought the 11,552-ton old timer was decommissioned, but the navy records ever move its ships make, from the time they have their keels until they become junk.

The present Illinois was built in 1898 and commissioned three years later. After the world cruise it was used as a training ship to carry midshipmen on their annual cruises. It was scrapped in 1929 and loaned to New York two years later. The Illinois was built at Newport News, Va.

Forerunner Never Completed
Its forerunner of the same name never was completed. The navy records the original Illinois "sold on the ways" during a government retrenchment program in 1872. It was a 2,200-ton, 20-gun steam sloop, under construction at Kittery, Me., before economy intervened.

Nineteen states now have commissioned fighting craft named for them. Some states have had several. For example, when the super-dreadnaughts North Carolina and Washington are commissioned about four years hence they will be the fourth and sixth men-of-war, respectively, to be so named. Every state has been so represented in the navy, at one time or other.

Battleships are the only type of naval vessel whose system of nomenclature is covered by statute. They must be named for states. Only tradition covers the naming of other types. Cruisers are named for cities, destroyers for naval heroes and submarines for "denizens of the deep."

The secretary of the navy is solely responsible for the selection of names in all cases. A resolution was introduced at the last session of Congress to make the next battleship the New Jersey.

Miss Roberta Long Weds Earl Gabrielson

The marriage of Miss Roberta Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Long and Earl Gabrielson, son of Mrs. A. Gabrielson of Humboldt, Iowa, was solemnized in the Church of the Brethren at three o'clock last Saturday afternoon.

The bride was beautiful in a white satin gown, with fitted bodice and long sleeves, puffed at the shoulder. Her face veil was caught to a tulle turban, from which also trailed a floor length lace trimmed veil, over the short train of her gown. In lieu of flowers, the bride carried a white satin prayerbook.

The bride was escorted down the aisle of the church by her father, where she was met by Mr. Gabrielson. The bride and groom proceeded to the flower decorated altar, where the service was read by the Rev. F. B. Statler.

To the left of the bride stood her sister, Mrs. H. C. Mitchell as matron of honor, and nearby were Miss Helen Hanes of Washington, D. C. and Harriet Porter of Chicago, her bridesmaids.
